1 GCC

To compile your code,

```
gcc -lstdc++ -std=c++1y -o <executable_name> <source1.cpp> [source2.cpp ...]
```

The -std=c++1y is required to tell GCC to enable C++14 support. When it compiles without errors you can run it as follows

```
./<executable_name>
```